

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives truly appreciate the time and effort involved in ensuring that every student is provided with the supportive, nurturing, and challenging school environment needed as a foundation for success with lifelong learning and future roles in society; and

Whereas, Elaine Haun has attained considerable distinction as a creative teacher who has involved her students in such literature experiences as plays and planting Peter Rabbit's garden; has been supportive of community activities through work as a team leader for her church's Cancer Relay for Life team; and has developed a reputation for remaining calm and patient when helping children with special needs; and

Whereas, currently serving as a kindergarten teacher in the Stockton R-I School District, Elaine Haun will bring her illustrious career to a close on July 1, 2004, after thirty-one years of educational service; and

Whereas, Elaine Haun has contributed twenty-five years to the Stockton schools as a teacher who has served on several professional committees, has given presentations to Young Years, and has taught summer school with enrichment activities; and

Whereas, Elaine Haun brought to her endeavors with Stockton schools a wealth of knowledge and experience which she had garnered earlier at schools in Bolivar, Harrisonville, and El Dorado Springs; and

Whereas, Elaine Haun is a member of Stockton Christian Church where she has taught Sunday school, sponsored Youth Group and Christ In Youth activities, and served as the Vacation Bible School coordinator; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of James K. Haun, Elaine Haun is the loving mother of Carmen Hazzard, Abby Haun, and Casey Haun; stepmother of Rodney Haun, who is married to Kenda; and a wonderful grandmother to Alexis Rose Hazzard and Elly Ann Haun:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career of Elaine Haun and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Elaine Haun of Stockton, Missouri.
